Unfriendly people up there, don't like your money if you are not plumbing tradesman. Choose Bunnings or Reece, they don't have problems for selling plumbing supplies to public. Yes, we talk about sales not carrying unlicensed works.

Thanks for your review and supporting our Trade Only policy Ren. Plumbing is a licensed trade and plumbing supplies should not be sold to the general public. We welcome your support and look forward to reading your review on Dan Murphy's in regards to them not selling a bottle of Vodka to your 12 year old son. We recommend you contact your local licensed plumber for any plumbing needs and that your 12 year old son doesn't drink vodka until he's of legal age.

Luke's Editorial

Trade Only isn't just a marketing ploy, it's our goal.

To change the way plumbing supplies are sold in Australia to a trade only industry.

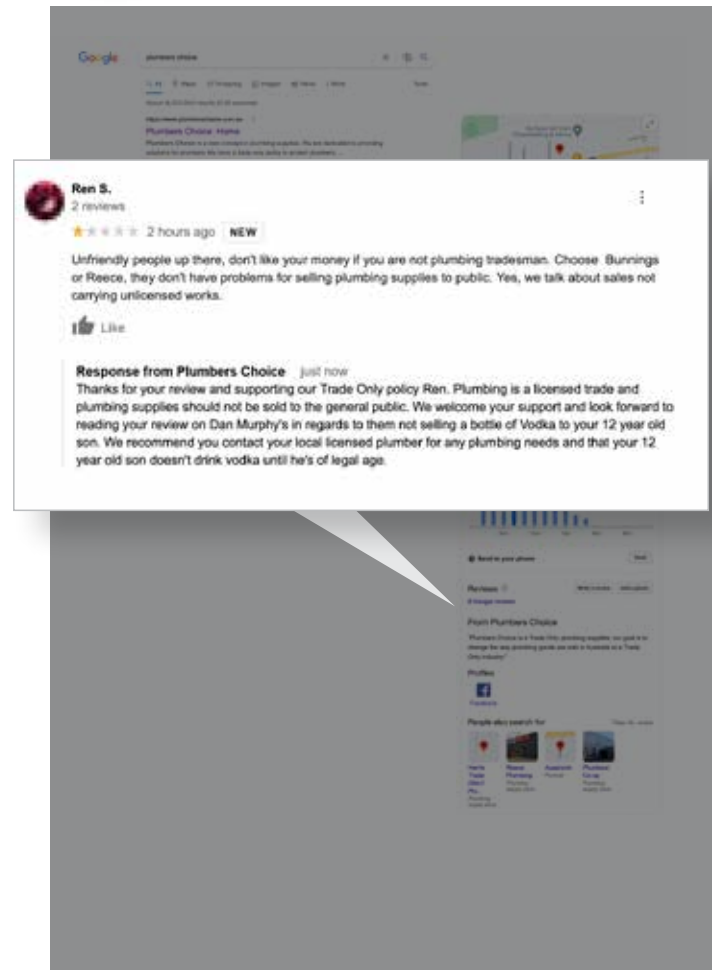

And sometimes that's not all peachy. Every week we knock back sales, deal with the public wasting our time, put up with builders getting abusive that we won't sell to them and receive negative reviews like the example on the cover.

You need to show ID to buy alcohol, you need a licence to buy a gun, heck, you even need a permit to keep a blue tongue lizard as a pet. So how is it still not required to have a plumbing licence to buy plumbing supplies.

Help us fight the good fight, support trade only suppliers and let's make Trade Only the industry standard to keep Ren from doing DIY plumbing and Ren's son off the booze!

PLUMBER SPOT LIGHT

42
YEARS
INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE

PAUL PALMER

Paul Palmer Plumbing Services
BATEAU BAY, NSW

What made you become a plumber?

Coming from a working class family background I took the opportunity when it arose through school.

What positive changes have you seen in the industry over your journey?

The tools, technology and methods that have developed over time. Changes like moving from soldering to the hydraulic press tools.

What problems do you face in the current market?

Not any lack of work! Apart from the odd non-paying customer the biggest issue I'm dealing with is finding quality workers nowadays, especially apprentices.

Why do you use Plumbers Choice?

Fantastic delivery times, and great customer service. My rep keeps in touch and calls me with specials and deals as well as letting me know about relevant new products. Having such a good relationship with the reps makes a difference.

What are your thoughts on "Trade Only"?

I fully support it, and if all suppliers were Trade Only it would keep uninsured and unqualified work to a minimum. Plumbing work should only be carried out by a plumber, and policing of work performed by non-plumbers should be stronger in NSW. It's not a good outcome when someone's house floods or burns down and they have no insurance.

Any advice for the next generation of plumbers?

It's a hard trade and not everyone is suited. Do a trial and make sure you're up for it before committing. Go in with a good attitude, and a willingness to learn. It's hard work, but very rewarding.
