The Gift That Keeps on Giving — Trade Only

Sure, you might find a cheaper price here or a closer store there, but to those suppliers, you're just another customer. No different to Mr Jones who strolls in off the street. And remember, Mr Jones is your customer also. When a supplier sells directly to him, they are taking away any markup opportunities you may have been able to add on, they're taking them from you for their own benefit.

This Christmas, we'd like to celebrate all the other suppliers who've chosen to give back by being Trade Only, the ones who support plumbers first, not the public for the benefit of their own back pocket.

Whether it's us, the original Trade Only plumbing supplier, or one of the many others who've proudly followed suit, in a season that is all about giving, give back to those that give to you and support a Trade Only supplier.

Merry Christmas!

Drilling a hole through a metal down pipe to camera?
Use a button hole cover to cover up your drill hole so it can be easily removed later.
Just tighten with your fingers on the front side.
